Too many men park their courtesy before entering the doors of their own homes.
The firm of Baird and Daniels had a large liquor trade before prohibition, dry and French varieties. While the raiders busted themselves collecting the liquor in the large warehouse about fifteen persons telephoned asking for liquor, according to Agent Brennan. He took down their names and told them they would get what they wanted. Brennan said a number of customers also came in person to the warehouse seeking liquor while the raid was going on.

WORLD-BEATING FINANCIAL ADVERTISING

In this, as in nineteen other major classes of advertising, the Los Angeles Times exceeds all other local papers. Strike Indicates Fresh Oil Field in New Mexico

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
FARMINGTON (N. M.) Nov. 21.—What may prove to be an important new oil field is indicated by an important strike just made by the Midwest company, whose second test well in wildcat territory about eighteen miles south of this place has come in at 100 feet with an initial flow of 5900 barrels a day of oil approximating 61 gravity. The well is near Ship Rock, on the Navajo Reservation, and about a quarter of a mile from the first hole sunk by the company.
Today the new gusher had settled down to a consistent flow of about 4000 barrels. There are no indications as to the extent of the oil-bearing area, though "domes" are plentiful.

It Was While the Search Was in Progress that the Woman Jumped From the Building

It was while the search was in progress that the woman jumped from the building, landing on the feet of Officers Newgard and Hammond. She collapsed when officers seized her, and when taken to Central Station was unable to give the officers any information which would explain her presence in the house.
Additional police officers were rushed to the scene when Captain McGee was shot. McGee was informed of the murder and every avenue of escape guarded. It is the opinion of officers that the man must have taken shelter near the scene of the crime as he was apparently severely wounded.

REDS HECKLE LADY ASTOR

Any Ass Can Turn Political Meetings Into Comedy, Her Answer to British Radicals

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
PLYMOUTH (Eng.) Nov. 21.—Lady Astor tonight carried her Parliamentary campaign into a corner of her constituency which is regarded as a hotbed of Socialism. To reach the speaker's platform, she had to climb through a window with the aid of a policeman, the dense throng which was vainly trying to enter the already overcrowded hall having made it impossible for her to approach the regular entrance.
As soon as she gained the platform, the Socialists began to heckle her. To their remarks and jeering, she retorted:
"If you want to turn all political meetings into comedy, it is easy enough to do so. Any ass can do it. Let you really want to hear me rip up the Labor party, be quiet. If you're going to try to be funny, you are not going to be funny at my expense. I'll have a lot of you turned out, and will go myself. If you can't rule your- selves how can you rule the country?"

STRICT COLLEGE TESTS ADVISED

Requirements for Entrance of Importance

Moral as Well as Mental Type Desired

Averages in High School Are Factors

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
 CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The really serious question in college entrance is not the number of students to be admitted to educational institutions, but the grade or mental class of the students who are admitted. Raymond A. Kent, dean of the college of liberal arts at Northwestern, said tonight in a radio address.

The day of selectivity as to incoming students has arrived.

NEEDS CITED

"What do we need to know of a man before we can intelligently say yes or no to his application to attend college?" The dean Kent, "First, how good a pupil was he in high school, as the answer to that will tell with astonishing reliability what kind of a student he will be in college. Secondly, what can he do in college? This can be measured in part by mental alertness tests. These tests are merely a method of finding out his possible success in certain kinds of school work, but it does not make a high score in mental alertness tests, it doesn't mean that he shouldn't go to college at all.

QUESTIONS INVOLVED

"A third question which colleges are coming to ask is 'how healthy is he or she?' The average student attends classes three hours a day and is asked to study six hours in addition. That is a nine-hour day. In every college many students are compelled to earn money every week. Hence, the physical condition of the student in no small degree determines how well his mind will work.

"Finally, there will be the question 'what sort of a person is he or she?' Honest? Like fair play? Sick to a task until it is done? A leader in high school enterprises? And many similar questions. The fellow who plays the game square, who does not cheat his fellow-students by dishonestly in class work, who is loyal to his school is the man the colleges like to build on."

Pint of Blood to Save Life Cause of Suit

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
 SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—A pint of blood given by Leona P. Standford, 19 years of age, in an effort to save the life of Mrs. G. P. Hilliard of Santa Rosa was worth $2500, went through the courts today before a jury of men before Superior Judge Ross Campbell. The woman was paid $2500 for the blood.

"You will be well paid," Mrs. Hilliard promised on her deathbed. Miss Standford, the latter testified. After the patient's death, however, her benefactress was handed $25 by the deceased woman's husband.

Miss Standford asserted the transfusion operation caused her shock and illness which necessitated about 100 visits to a physician for medical treatment at a cost of $500. She added she may have to undergo another operation as a result of an infection due to the transfusion.

Walton's conviction was based on the killing of S. P. Burt, his ex-pal, against whom he turned after landing in prison. High School Net Stars to Perform in Mid-Winter Tournament

RACKETERS MIX AT FULLERTON

Midwinter Event Will be Held Next Month

Two Players From Each High School Eligible

Fine Turnout Expected for Initial Tournament

Southern California's prep tennis players are going to get a chance to shine in a midwinter intercollegiate net tournament to be held on the courts of the Fullerton High School on Friday and Saturday, December 8 and 9. The affair is under the direction of M. A. Hoffman, a former Ohio prep and college star.

The purpose of the tournament is twofold, the desire being to foster the game among the preps and to broadcast Southern California's tennis talent to the world at large. Back in the frigid East the tennis players keep in trim at this time of the year by swinging their arms to keep warm. Fullerton is an ideal place for the tournament, the school having no less than fourteen good courts, ten of which are cement and the others clay. Two players from each high school are invited to enter the tournament to represent their institution and as some of the finest Southern California net stars are enrolled in the prep ranks a fine turnout is expected.

Sports of 1923

BY FEG MURRAY

"Like Kelly Did"

Jim Kelly of the N.Y.A.C. has been hard-ball handball champion of the world since 1909. This red-headed Irishman is a remarkable player, a master of the strategy and style of the oldest of all competitive games played with a ball.

Fred Kelly won the high hurdle race at the 1912 Olympic games in Stockholm when only a high school boy. If it were not for the fact that he was acting as a paid track coach, he would undoubtedly be on the American team to the Olympic games in Paris in 1924. He was the first athlete to run the high hurdles in 15s. In this country, holding the world's record until it was broken by Simpson in 1916.

George Kelly, the famous first baseman of the New York Giants, was one of the fielding stars of this year's world series. His one-handed stab of Ruth's terrific drive in the seventh inning of the first game, and his throw to the plate to catch Dugan, was one of the most sensational plays of the series. Long George also achieved fame in 1923 by hitting three home runs in one game against the Chicago Cubs.

Jack Kelly, former world's sculling champion, who won the single and double sculls at the Olympic games in Antwerp in 1920. Jack has been a prominent figure in American rowing since 1909, having won six national championships, and over ninety races in open regattas for the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia.

COACH CENTERS ON THE FORWARD PASS

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

BERKELEY, Nov. 21.—Andy Smith, football coach at the University of California, is coaching his charges in a defense for the forward pass, so that they will not be helpless if this form of attack is used by Stanford University next Saturday. The University of Washington made its principal gains through California by the air route last week. The Bears also found the University of Southern California troublesome in this way.

TEAMS PLAY FOR WATER POLO TITLE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 21.—The national junior A.A.U. water polo championships for this region will be held here December 6, 7 and 8. It was announced today by Swimming Coach Ernest Brandsten. The outstanding contenders this year are Stanford University and the Olympic Club of San Francisco. Neither may enter a team, but is not yet certain.

PADDOCK WILL BE REINSTATED

Eastern Sprinters Compete Against Champion

Star Runners Come West for Meet in April

Goodwillie and Washington Likely Starters

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Bob Weaver, former president of the National A.A.U., who represented the Los Angeles Athletic Club at the convention in Detroit, early this week, passed through Chicago today on his way to the Coast and announced that eastern sprinters will go west in April to meet Charles Paddock, world's fastest sprinter in a series of races.

According to Weaver, consent has been obtained from the A.A.U. through Secretary Rubin to hold these races. Paddock will be reinstated in a short time, according to the Coast league, and the first for Long Beach, champions of the Coast League. Long Beach came through in the first round of the meet with Pasadena in good shape, so far as injuries are concerned, and the sprinters will enter with twenty players for the north Friday morning.

Under the able tutelage of Coach H. B. Welsh, former Oberlin and Syracuse football star, who came to Santa Maria from Reno Nev. this fall, the northern team has swept through all opposition in extremely impressive style to date, piling up a huge total of 343 points against their opponents' 7 in six games this year. Lancaster, champions of the Antelope Valley League eleven, fell before the overwhelming score of 53 to 0 last Saturday last, the crushing attack of the northern team.

In league games this year Santa Maria defeated San Luis Obispo 29 to 0; Oxnard 122 to 0; Long Beach 30 to 0; Santa Barbara 25 to 0; King City 44 to 7; Lancaster 53 to 0. Truly a remarkable record for a school that until this year has consistently held down the cellar championship of its league.

Long Beach disposed of its four league opponents in the following manner: Santa Ana, 5 to 0; Fullerton, 46 to 0; San Diego, 26 to 0; Pasadena, 15 to 9, suffering two narrow escapes in the contests with Santa Ana and Pasadena, respectively.

Santa Maria High School boasts of an enrollment of but 400 students, while Long Beach Polytechnic this fall registered 4009.

HANFORD, Nov. 21.—In the ball sweepstakes at the Kings County Country Club Sunday, with fifteen golfers entered, P. W. Byrd (handicap 18) and Leonard Head (handicap 22) divided honors for the low net score of 79. Stephen Bauer, the new pro, formerly of Pebble Beach and Del Monte golf courses, will soon start the installation of new bunkers on the course and improving the traps.

MICHIGAN TEAM CRIPPLED

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

ANN ARBOR (Mich.), Nov. 21.—Four University of Michigan substitute football players, who sat out the game at the start of the gridiron season, knowing that there would be but a small chance of becoming regulars this season, will start in Saturday's game against the Minnesota eleven.

"Tod" Rockwell received his opportunity to catch a fly to fame in the Wisconsin game last Saturday when the quarterback rushed in and received their chance winning touchdown. Against the Gophers he again will call signals and act in the capacity of a field

HUSKIES WORKING HARD

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

SEATTLE, Nov. 21.—The University of Washington football team was in the midst of a hard week's practice today, preparing for the game with Washington State College here Saturday, considered by football followers as the most important game at home of the 1923 season.

Today's workout brought out every regular in good condition except Ed Kuhn and Elmer Tesreau, both of whom were allowed to remain out of scrimmage against the second team because of injuries received in the California game at Berkeley last Saturday. Both boys were expected to be in shape Saturday.

The Cougars will arrive with virtually every regular ready to go, according to word received here. Stan Bray, substitute fullback, has been out of practice, while Duke Slater, first-string fullback, has

SIKI NOT DISCOURAGED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Battling Siki got away to a poor start here in his feud with Kid Norfolk in Madison Square Garden last night, but the Senegalese thumper says that it will be different the next time out and that, now that he knows Norfolk's queer crouching style, if he ever gets another crack at him he will stop him quickly. Just another chance is all the batter craves, according to a real tough manager, Bob Levy. Siki offers no skill for his upset at the hands

JACK RABBITS GO NORTH

Coach Schuettner's Long Beach Team Ready to Meet Santa Maria Gridders in Play-off

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

LONG BEACH, Nov. 21.—Although thousands of rabid football fans of this city are hugely disappointed as a result of the decision to stage the Santa Maria-Long Beach Southern California prep play-off game of Santa Maria, Saturday, just 200 miles north of Long Beach, they take a little solace in the fact that the Jackrabbits have performed their best away from home in previous contests to date.

Long Beach's showing against the University of California freshmen in the north early in the season and the Jackrabbit victory over the strong San Diego High School contingent in the south two weeks ago, the first game lost by the southern school on its own gridiron in four years, speaks well for the manner in which Arthur Schuettner's cohorts perform away from home. Thousands of enthusiastic adherents of the Jackrabbits are cheering that Santa Maria invasion will be guided by the same star.

The coming conflict will constitute the second play-off contest for the premier prep honors of the Southland, for Santa Maria, now champions of the Santa Barbara and Ventura leagues, and the first for Long Beach, champions of the Coast League. Long Beach came through in the first round of the meet with Pasadena in good shape, so far as injuries are concerned, and the sprinters will enter with twenty players for the north Friday morning.

Under the able tutelage of Coach H. B. SCENE OF GRID TILT SWITCHED

Orange and Sweetwater Teams to Tangle Saturday on Pomer's Field

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

ORANGE, Nov. 21.—Instead of playing at National City, as originally planned, the Orange and Sweetwater prep squads will clash on the Orange field Saturday afternoon in the first round of the play-off for the Southern California championship. It was announced here late today.

Availability of the Sweetwater authorities to procure the San Diego stadium as the scene of the game, and the poor condition of the National City field, were given as the reasons for the change which was warmly welcomed by local fans.

A record crowd, rivaling the Armistice Day turnout, is anticipated when the two teams take the field here at 2:30 o'clock next Saturday. Sweetwater, boasting a strong team, wired today that a large delegation from the Border City would be on hand to cheer their team.

Sweetwater, according to reports here, has a record of 12-1-0 score early in the season. Orange earned the right to carry the Orange colors into the Southern California try-outs by defeating Tustin, 17 to 0, yesterday, and conquering Anaheim in two successive games, 17 to 0, and 29 to 9.

Sigma Chis in Close Victory Over ZKE Five

The Sigma Chis and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon quintets remained in the running for the University of Southern California fraternity basketball championship by eliminating the Zeta Kappa Epsilon and Delta Phi Delta five, respectively, in two hot games played last night in the U.S.C. pavilion. The Sigma Chis scored out the Zeta's by a 9-7 score, while the S.A.E. crew walloped the Delta Phi Deltas, 28 to 4.

Badger and Kaer featured the Sigma Chis in point getting, while McCue did good work for the "Zeks." The Sigma Chis defense held the "Zeks" to a single field goal, a long shot made by McCue.

Boyer, Knight and Rowel were the heavy point getters for the S.A.E. quintet, with the latter accounting for fourteen of his team's digits. McCrisis scored all three of the Delta Phi Deltas. The lineups:

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Conclusion of negotiations for resumption of football relations between Dartmouth and Yale was viewed as a triumph for the organizers of the "Big Three" in collegiate football.

As for as football is concerned, the only link needed to complete the chain is for Princeton to resume relations, as the three already in on Harvard's schedule.

This cannot take place, however, as the college is already committed to other games.

CALIFORNIA ON TURF MAP

Tanforan Promoters Believe Belless Racing Sure to Succeed; To Give Spring Meeting

BY A. P. MORTIMER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—After eighteen days of "belless" horse racing at Tanforan track, near here, with events run daily except Sunday, officials of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club expressed the opinion today that California once more had been placed on the turf map, despite the fact that large crowds had failed to patronize the course save on Saturdays or on afternoons of feature stakes. Yesterday the jockey club announced that a spring meeting would be held.

Gate receipts indicate that on ordinary days the attendance has averaged somewhere between 700 and 1000 persons, while on feature days—usually on Wednesday or Saturday—between 1000 and 1500 have been present. On the opening day, November 3, a throng of 30,000 choked the grounds.

NO BETTING

The determination to prevent betting has been pushed, according to Robert F. Leighton, racing secretary of the club. More than fifty persons have been arrested from the grounds on suspicion of bookmaking and have been barred from further attendance. The offenders have been arrested and fined.

"There is talk of holding trotting and pacing races at Tanforan," said Mr. Leighton. "There is a prospect of a good circuit on the Pacific Coast."

ARE ENCOURAGED

Those backing Tanforan also say they are encouraged by the stimulus which the Tanforan meeting has given the breeding of thoroughbred horses in California.

An investment approximating $1,000,000 is said to be represented in the reconstruction of the old Tanforan track.

His opening marked the return of running races to this State after twelve years, since the Legislature banned wagering. The daily races are for purses of $100 each. The feature events bring from $2000 to $3000 as added stakes. The meetings will last the rest of this month.

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) Nov. 21.—The Yale-Harvard boat race on the Thames at New London next year will be rowed on June 29.

The Harvard varsity crew scheduled for 1924 announced today also calls for races against Pennsylvania and Columbia at Cambridge on May 10. On May 31, the Harvard junior varsity will compete in the American regatta at Philadelphia.

It was announced that the customary Harvard, Princeton and Navy race could not be held next year, as Princeton could accept only May 5, impossible for Harvard because of divisional entrants.

The distance will be five furlongs, the horses 2-year-olds.

The Woman and Her Job

WANTED: A WOMAN

Wanted a girl to answer the telephone. She must be young, of course, and they thought she should have a pleasant personality. They advertised and a score of young and pretty girls applied. The book-keeper interviewed all—be wanted to pick the best-looker in the crowd. He answered his questions and agreed with what he said. The girl was required to say: "The order is on the wagon now, Madame. I'm sure it will reach you in the next thirty minutes." One of the applicants was neither young nor pretty. She had grayed at the temples and her skin had lost the clarity of youth. She must have been nearly forty. Of course, they want 'em young. She listened to what the book-keeper said. He had to talk to her; but he had put an "X" after the name of a vivacious blonde. When he came to that part of his preamble where he told her how to answer the women who were angry because their groceries hadn't arrived, she interrupted gently.

"What is the real reason for these delays?"

"Why—probably they didn't order early enough."

"But they don't complain unless it is an emergency, do they?"

"At this the president stopped signing vouchers, and strolled over beside the book-keeper."

"Just what do you mean by that?" he wanted to know.

"If the order is a 'rush' and it is given that designation when it is received it shouldn't be handled with the regular orders. Isn't it possible to make special provision for orders of that character—say a small fee for special delivery?"

"Do you keep house?" The president eyed the applicant keenly.

"Yes; my husband died a year ago, and I've had to go to work to keep my three girls in school."

"Where do you buy your groceries?"

The applicant looked down, and then raised clear eyes to his. She made up her mind to tell him the truth, job or no job.

"I used to buy them here, but your service was so unreliable—I never could depend on an emergency order—that I changed to Anderson & Company. When I complained, the girl who answered the phone always told me the order was on the wagon, and I knew perfectly well she hadn't even taken the trouble to inquire. A delay of that kind can put a woman in a very embarrassing position."

"And you quit buying there for that reason. Know anybody else who did that?"

"Oh, yes. Several of my woman friends—my next-door neighbors used to buy here but one of them quit before I did and the other one later."

"This is all very interesting. I wish you'd report for work tomorrow morning. I'll think over that special delivery for rush orders; it's a good idea."

So the woman who wasn't young or pretty but had intelligence and experience, went to work. The book-keeper preferred the blonde but it didn't really matter.

Slowly and surely the business began to build under the guidance of this woman who knew from experience. She persuaded her employers to install two telephone operators who took the orders, as they came over the 'phone. She picked these girls herself. One was pretty, the other plain, but both had good sense, were tactful, in suggesting specialties, and in getting the customer to place her order early, or if it was a rush, to pay the special delivery fee.

Business organizations are beginning to realize the importance of selecting the right sort of person to answer the telephone, especially in the matter of complaints. It used to be about the most poorly paid job of all, but slowly the price is rising.

youth and beauty has ceased to be the first requisite. The rage of the flapper is waning. Maturity is not so objectionable as it was, so long as it is accompanied by efficiency. But efficiency is essential, irrespective of age.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Dear Mrs. A.: If you will take a course in typewriting, your chances of employment to do draughting in an architect's office will be greatly increased. It is usual, except in very large offices, to give the typing of specifications to a public stenographer, or get a typist to come to the office for a few days. If an applicant for draughting could also help out with this work it would be a big advantage.

Dear Nettie: You can take a course in operating a combination billing and adding machine for $40. The course lasts three weeks and is under the direction of an expert. The work pays from $100 to $150 and is adapted to the mature woman who has kept her fingers supple with piano practice. Send me a stamped envelope and I'll be glad to give you an address.

Dear Mrs. Y.: You are not very specific in your question about chemistry. If you wanted commercial chemistry you could get it in the Polytechnic Evening High School; but since you are unable to do evening work, you might enter one of the universities as a special student. A talk with the registrar at the Southern Branch of the State University, or at the University of Southern California, would soon determine the nature of the work offered. I would suggest you go see them.

For Only 18¢ More You Can Ride First Class!

Wouldn't you gladly pay 4-100th of a cent per mile more to ride in the luxuriously comfortable Pullman?

That's just the bargain you are now offered in automobile transportation. You can ride in a fine car—a handsome six-cylinder Studebaker—for an amazingly low cost.

The operating cost of a Studebaker Light Six is only 4-100ths of a cent per mile more than cars in the lowest price class.

Just think! It only costs 18 cents more to drive a Studebaker Light Six to San Francisco—460 miles of glorious, carefree driving—free from worries and frequent delays.

Compare operating costs for 25,000 miles—count purchase price, depreciation, repairs and all—and you'll find the Studebaker Light Six, despite its price of $1210 delivered, really costs only $10 more than cars in the lowest price class!

Astonishing figures! Wonderful news to thousands who thought they couldn't afford a fine car!

And—when compared with cars in the $700-$1200 price class—the Studebaker Light Six shows an even greater saving. It costs 11.4% LESS to operate. A saving—in 25,000 miles—of $207.50!

These proofs of Studebaker economy were discovered when auditors analyzed the cost records of large fleet owners. On the strength of these figures, big corporations are replacing their low and medium priced cars with the wonderfully economical Studebaker Light Sixes.

Isn't their example a good one for you to follow? Just 'phone 874-361 and say, "Send me a Studebaker Light Six to drive and test myself." Driving is believing.

$500,000 Reward

Big prizes for an idea! Tell the remarkable story of Studebaker economy in your own words. Study these facts. For more information ask for folder with full auditors' report from any Paul G. Hoffman Co. store.

CHINESE MAIL SELLS NANKING

Pacific Steamship Company
Gets Well-Known Liner

Simon Silver Stockholders
Approve Name Change

Hotel Bonds Are Offered on Seven Per Cent Basis

Sale of the China Mail steamship "Nanking" by the United States Marshal to the Pacific Steamship Company for $750,000 is the last chapter in the winding up of the affairs of the China Mail Company, which has been in liquidation
for some time.

The China Mail Steamship Company's difficulty with the bondholders began early last spring, when the company's affairs were placed under the supervision of a receiver.
The receiver, in violation of the trust
indenture with the Union Trust Company, under which its bonds were issued.

At the request of Blyth, Witter & Co., underwriters and original distributors of the China Mail bonds, notice of default was served.
On July 1 the China Mail Company was unable to meet interest and maturing principal charges and Blyth, Witter & Co., representing the majority of bondholders who had deposited their bonds with them, proceeded to foreclose and sell the property.

The China Mail bondholder, who deposited his bonds with the underwriter, will now receive payment in full. Back interest, which has accrued since January 1, 1923, will be paid in cash and new first mortgage bonds of the Pacific Steamship Company will be issued for the principal amount due.

The new bonds are to be a direct obligation of the Pacific Steamship Company, secured by a first mortgage on the steamship "Emma Alexander," the name under which the "Nanking" will enter the service of the Admiral Line and will be unconditionally guaranteed, both as to principal and interest, by the Pacific-Alaska Navigation Company, parent company of the Pacific Steamship Company.

Controlling interest in the Pacific
Steamship Company is vested in H.
F. Alexander and associates in Tacoma and Seattle. Robert Dollar, D. C. Jackling and other strong financial interests.

The Pacific Steamship Company
is rounding out the most successful year in its history. The company has been in coastwise business for many years and has found it necessary to add continually to its fleet of Admiral steamers. The "Emma Alexander" will sail opposite the steamship "H. F. Alexander" on the Seattle-to-San Diego run, and, when refitted, will rival the latter in palatial appointments
it is said.

SIMON SILVER AFFAIRS

Stockholders of the Simon Silver-Lead Mines Company, have been notified of the official approval by a 60 per cent vote of the transfer of the properties, debts and liabilities to the Simon Silver-Lead Mines, Inc. the stock of which will be assessed. The meeting was held in Mina, Nev., the 12th inst.

The new company agrees to exchange its capital stock share for share for the securities of the Simon Silver-Lead Mines Company,
which now passes out of existence.
Stockholders are asked by the secretary, B. P. Baker, to forward their certificates for transfer to him at the company's head office at Mina.

The property assumed by the new company is situated on the southwestern slope of the Cedar Range in Mineral County Nevada. It comprises ten lode mining claims, aggregating from 1200 to 1600 feet
in width. A complete mine plant and mill are in operation.

HOTEL BONDS

Leo G. MacLaughlin Company is

pany first mortgage 7 per cent serial gold bonds due 1923-1938, inclusive, at 101 and interest to yield 7 per cent.

The bonds are secured by a first closed mortgage on the land and all improvements situated at No.
818 South Flower street. In addition to this security a chattel morgage on all furnishings in the hotel is given amounting to approximately $125,000. Under the morgage, there is also property situated on Figueroa street between Fifth and Sixth, having an estimated value of $100,000.

BOND QUOTATIONS

Italy Rises

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Second-railroad mortgage bonds were strong in today's more active bond trading on the New York Stock Exchange due chiefly to the improvement in rail shares in the stock market.

Buying in the rail group covered a wide assortment, but several issues, notably Seaboard Air-Line, New Haven, Erie and St. Paul bonds, displayed the greater strength. Investment railroad bonds sagged slightly, not so much on large offerings as on a scarcity of buyers. Institutions recently have been big purchasers of these bonds and traders reported few orders were in the market today.

Some of the copper, oil and rubber company bonds found good support today and advanced moderately, but a greater number of industrial issues fell off on individual influences. The market for public utility issues was active and prices narrowed.

Later afternoon buying of active United States government bonds turned these issues upward after earlier losses. While foreign bonds held firm and in many cases improved, the more favorable news from Paris arrived too late to send them up more than moderately.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Following are the closing quotations on bonds listed on the New York

MATCH MAKING
AS A BUSINESSUnited States Responsible for One-third OutputWorld Consumption Annually Four and Half TrillionSeven Strikes Per Day for Every Soul in WorldFour trillion, six hundred seventy-five billion, six hundred fifty million.No, gentle reader, this long line of figures does not, as might be supposed, represent the paper money of the European countries in which currency inflation is the order of the day. On the contrary, they are the plain, uninfated
statistics of the world consumption of that article of daily and hourly use, the match.A recent flotation in the United States of a large loan for the purpose of financing the activities of the world match-manufacturing industry has led the Trade Record of the National City Bank of New York to a study of the world's outturn and consumption of matches, and it estimates that the people of the world used last year 4,675,650, 000,000 matches, for which they paid approximately $200,000,000.This estimate of the number of matches used and their cost to the "final consumer" is based upon data supplied by high authorities
in the match industry of the world.
Figures recently published by a high authority in London put the average per capita consumption of matches by the people of Europe at from six to ten matches per day, and estimates by an equally high authority in the match industry of the United States put the average per capita consumption of the whole world at about seven matches per day. Applying this estimate of a world average of seven matches per day to the figures of world population as recorded by the Statistical Abstract of the United States, 1,830,000,000 persons, we get for the average consumption 12,810,000,000 matches per day, or a grand aggregate of 4,675,650,000,000 as the authoritative estimate of the world's annual consumption. Equally high authorities familiar with the factory cost and the wholesale and retail selling price of this 4,600,000, 000,000 matches consumed estimate the sums paid by the final consumer at approximately $200, 000,000 per annum.Most of the four and one-half trillion matches manufactured for the world markets are the products of a half-dozen countries having special facilities for the productionof this article of world requirement. The three requisites for successful manufacture of matches are, first, a plentiful supply of the kinds of wood suited for their manufacture; second, plentiful capital for the purchase of the ingenious and expensive machinery
by which they are turned out; and,
third, plentiful supplies of labor.
Aspen and white pine are the timber chiefly used, as the consequence of the largest match manufacturing countries of the world are the United States, Sweden and Japan,
though Great Britain and Germany
are also considerable producers, drawing their material from the Scandinavian forests, where large supplies of the aspen wood are available. Japan draws the aspen used in her factories in part from her own forests and in part from those of Manchuria and Siberia. In the United States the wood used in manufacturing matches is the white pine. Russia, with its plentiful supply of timber and large population, was, prior to the war, a large manufacturer.It is not to be supposed from the above statements that all of the world's matches are produced in the six countries named, the United States, Sweden, Japan, Russia, Great Britain and Germany.
Limited quantities are produced in other countries, and in France the industry is a government monopoly,
and those acquainted with the subject assert that the cost of matches used in France is much greater than in other countries, where competition holds down the price and at the same time results in the production of a higher quality of match than those turned out under the government monopoly in France.About 33 per cent of the four and one-half trillion matches consumed in the world are produced in the United States, 20 per cent
in Sweden, 20 per cent in Japan, 15 per cent in Great Britain, and the bulk of the remainder in Russia, Norway, Germany and limited quantities in China. The United States, while the largest producer of the world, exports but a limited quantity. Japan and Sweden are the world's chief exporters of matches. Japan supplies a large part of the matches used in the Orient, especially India, China and the Dutch East Indies, while Sweden exports largely to adjacent European countries, and also to Africa, South America and Australia.
A large share of the matches made in Sweden and Japan are of the "safety" type, while not more than one-third of the 1,600,000,000,000 made in the United States are of this type.While the match is looked upon as an inexpensive article, its manufacture requires a larger amount of capital in proportion to outturn than that of many other important articles. The 1920 reports of the United States Census of Manufactures puts the capitalization of the match factories of the United States at nearly $30,000, 000, suggesting that the capital invested in the match industry of the world approximates $100,000, 000.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Gains ranging from fractions to 2 points were distributed throughout the list in yesterday's market on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Buying enthusiasm was revived in response to the revival in sentiment over petroleum prospects, and the list finished the day in the first uniform advance in some time.
U. S. Royalties moved forward the greatest distance, climbing 2 cents to a final price of 35 1/2.
Standard Oil of California retained its leadership of the higher-priced group and sold up 1 3/4 points to 59 1/4 on a small turnover. The Union Oil shares were buoyant Union Oil Associates rising 1 1/2 point to 45 1/2 and Union Oil getting to 105, only to drop back to 104 at the close, off 1-4 from the previous day.United Oil advanced 1 3/4 points to 23 7/8, and General Petroleum common acquired 5-8 at 31 5/8.
The opposite tendency was manifested in the mining shares. United Eastern receded 6 cents to 1.35, opening at 1.45, while Tom Reed fell from a high for the day of 60 cents to 58 1/2 cents at the finish.
Oatman United was quoted at 6
cents and Calumet at 20 1/2, up 1 cent.Globe Grain common was the bright spot in the industrial list.
The stock got as high as 65 1/2, but closed unchanged at 65.
Bonds were somewhat quieter,
the total transactions only amounting to $33,500 par value.Following are the closing quotat-

A Gold Mine of Opportunity

The wonderful profits that have long been hidden within the lowly sweet potato are destined to startle the industrial world.

The California Sweet Potato is no longer a perishable table vegetable—it is an industrial investment opportunity.

The foresight of the California Sweet Potato Corporation has made this possible. Back in 1919 it realized that the sweet potato had great potential profit possibilities and the exclusive rights to the use of the Wells Curing Process, so eminently successful in the South and in Texas, were secured.

This curing process does not alter the condition, shape, color or food value of the sweet potato—it does enhance its flavor and increase its saccharine content.

The result—instead of a seasonable commodity—the sweet potato can now be stored and marketed throughout the year, in season and out, obtaining the best market price.

The fact that they were perishable has restricted the planting of sweet potatoes to the needs of the immediate market, but today California Sweet Potatoes—Yams—are being shipped all over the West and the demand is more than ten times the supply.

This is the reason why you are offered the opportunity to invest in the capital stock of the California Sweet Potato Corporation.

Only 588 Shares are offered. These are divided as follows:

2533 Shares 8 per cent Cumulative Preferred, Par $100.00
3248 Shares Class A Common

The balance of the 10,000 shares have already been purchased by the officers and directors of the corporation.

The money secured from the sale of this stock is to be used for the expansion of the business—to finance growers in order to insure increased supply, and to add to the present overtaxed facilities, as well as construct added curing units and distilleries.

Every ounce of every sweet potato will pay you a profit. First through the curing and marketing of the fresh sweet potatoes. Second from the alcohol derived from the culls and lastly from the residue, which is disposed of as feed for dairy herds and beef cattle.

The story of profits reads like a tale of the "Arabian Nights." But an analysis of the profit possibilities as told in our book, "Sweet Potatoes—Another California Industry," shows this to be the outstanding investment opportunity of the decade. Fill out and mail the coupon and the book will be sent you, FREE.

POLICE BODY'S INACTIVITY HIT

Holding Up of Dance Permit Draws Rebuke

Film Directors Said to be Inconvenienced

Blame is Placed at Door of Clergyman Member

Resolutions protesting action of the Police Commission in withholding its decision on an application of the Motion Picture Directors' Association for a permit to conduct its seventh annual ball at the Biltmore Hotel were adopted yesterday at the Biltmore by 108 members of the Los Angeles Commercial Board.

St. Manchester Boddy, who introduced the resolution, said that for six years the association has been giving an annual social ball and that this year the members already have spent hundreds of dollars preparing for the event.

The action of the Police Commission in turning the matter of the issuance of a permit over to Chief Vollmer, who will not act on same until the day preceding the scheduled entertainment, is deplorable, to say the least, said Mr. Boddy.

MINISTERS BLAMED

"Who is the commissioner who turned the directors down?" Mr. Boddy was asked.

"Well, he is a minister of the gospel," replied Boddy.

The resolution, in part, follows: "Resolved, that this action on the part of the Police Commission is detrimental to the best interests of the city, inasmuch as it makes demand regulation ridiculous and will tend to disgust citizens who believe in a fair deal and sane administration of the police department; therefore, be it resolved, that we protest the unnecessary delay caused the Motion Picture Directors' Association."

The program was in charge of the Traffic Commission of Los Angeles, among the speakers being Paul G. Hoffman, president, Harold S. Ryerson, secretary, and Louis Williams of the executive committee of the commission.

Mr. Hoffman, who advocated a series of belt lines around congested districts in order that motorists having no particular business in congested areas might escape such districts, to the benefit of themselves and others, declared that if the people of Los Angeles do not soon spend $25,000,000 for traffic relief they will find themselves taxed, directly or indirectly, to the extent of about $75,000,000 within the next ten years.

"We are trying to apply farm-wagon methods to a motor-car age," said Mr. Williams. "We must find a way to separate motor car and street-car traffic. It would pay Los Angeles to invest a little money for expert engineering advice."

SIGNAL SYSTEM URGED

Mr. Williams also advocated an accurate, flexible and economic signal system, declaring it a waste of money and energy to employ hundreds of officers to duplicate the signal system. He said that at present the City Council seems to favor everything that no one is against, that the police department stands for everything that everybody is against, and that so far nothing definite has been tried in the matter of relief of traffic congestion. In the last analysis, he said, the traffic problem is one for the people to solve.

Mr. Ryerson said traffic problems cannot be solved by "Babbitt-minded citizens with billion-dollar ideas" but that practical thought and action is necessary to a solution of the situation. He said that it may be necessary to establish a traffic school in Los Angeles for the benefit of drivers and the public planning commission for its success in having new tracts of land so laid out that the streets will connect with the main arteries of traffic.

that little can be heard, and if they are closed the air becomes as thick as pea soup. If the doors through the judge's chambers into the outer corridor are left open, the draught up the elevator shaft is such that it sweeps the papers off the attorneys' table and strikes the judge on the back of the neck and gives him a hard cold. The air from the windows comes up an airshaft. So the doors are kept shut and justice is all suffocated.

THE OTHER TWENTY-SIX

There are twenty-eight regular departments of the Superior Court with three special departments. The latter are housed in the Sunday-school and women's guild rooms of the Broadway Christian Church opposite the Courthouse.

After the mad scramble, the two pigeon-holes next the elevator shaft were all left for Departments Nos. 23 and 24. The others are scattered through the Hall of Records and that old rookery called the Courthouse.

Seven of the justice of peace courts are in the basement of the Courthouse, two in the old Hall of Justice. They are in quarters that long have been outgrown by court business. The corridors are piled with ballot boxes and registration files, and when it is speeders' day the confusion is like Monday morning in a department store.

It was discovered some time ago that Los Angeles had grown, so when the Alhambra Hotel is remodeled for county use the justice courts will go there. This will be in a few months. The new quarters for the Superior Courts will not be ready until the new Hall of Justice is completed. This will be in about two years.

TELLS PLAN TO ENFORCE LAWS

Moreover, the women are now in the field to help us." Secretary Hughes was quoted to the effect that: "Everyone is ready to sustain the law he likes; the test is when the law is upheld even when it hurts." Atty.-Gen. Daugherty was quoted as follows: "As a citizen cannot choose which laws he will obey, so the official cannot choose which laws he will enforce. He must enforce them all."

LEGION PLANS FROLIC

American Legion members of Los Angeles Post No. 8 will be entertained tonight at their meeting at the Disabled Veterans' Hall, 246 South Hill street, by the Shirley Sisters and the Ching Brothers, who will present a program of musical and dancing acts. Bert Horrie, theatrical manager and producer, is donating the acts. All Legionnaires are invited. There will be no admission charge.

KNOWS MANY YARNS

Little Jeanne Annette, who never had a moment of seasickness, already Jeanne Annette, though only 3 years of age, has learned much of the lore of ships. Crammed into her childish blond head is many a yarn of the deep seas told to her by members of the crew as they sit mending sail or mending rope. Also, she has a surprising knowledge of sailing the huge five-master that has been her home the past month.

The Forest Friend, one of the largest barkentines ever to enter this port, a five-master of 1614 tons displacement, has a length of 300 feet, a beam of forty-two feet and draws twenty-two feet of water. Coming from Renton, Lake Washington, Wash., with 1,700,000 feet of lumber, under charter of the McCutcheon-Paine Lumber Company, she has the distinction of being the first deep-sea vessel ever to load cargo in Lake Washington. Entrance to the lake is gained by means of canal locks.

In good sailing weather the Forest Friend has been seen in the stream freighters well might envy. Once, according to Capt. Goughour, she was passed by a tug for a period of forty-eight hours.

ONE OF FLEET OF FOUR

The Forest Friend is one of a fleet of four ships owned by the Gray's Harbor Motorship Corporation and under charter to the McCutcheon-Paine Lumber Company. The others are the Forest Dream, Forest Pride and Forest King. The latter is a steam freighter. The Forest Dream and the Forest Pride, like the Forest Friend, are five-master barkentines.

The family of Capt. Goughour lead almost an ideal life. They carry their own automobile on the Forest Friend, and they know that they can get off in any port and ride. Who wouldn't envy them?

Pico Residents Suggest Special Site for Library

A resolution favoring the acquisition by the city for park, library and museum purposes, of the tract of land including nine city blocks and known as Westmoreland Place, which is bounded by Pico and Vermont streets on the south and east, with Tenth street on the north projected as a boulevard, was passed last night at a meeting of the Greater Pico Street Association, Inc.

The tract contains only nine buildings at present, according to the resolution, and through restrictions and other causes, is unlikely to be used for further residences or private purposes.

It is pointed out by the association that the site will be a suitable one for the establishment of a branch library and art museum.

POLICE SEIZE STILL, MUCH MASH AND MAN

Seizure of a 100-gallon still, approximately 1000 gallons of mash and a quantity of liquor was the result of a raid by Detective Lieutenant Westgater, in charge of Los Angeles police in the San Fernando valley, and Officer Hawes of Hollywood police, yesterday, on a house at 1606 E. Chase.

According to the report to police, Jose Romero, reported to have been in charge of the still, was arrested and is held in Hollywood jail on Wright Act charges.

this penalizing the growers of the San Fernando Valley who were assisting in financing the case at least $250 a day. Mr. Matthews as special counsel for the Board of Public Service Commissioners receives a salary of $12,000 a year.

Mr. Craig further said to the court: "The burden is very great upon these farmers and upon myself. Your Honor, and I do not see why Mr. Matthews could not be prepared himself to be here to try this case this morning. This would be the way to let our witnesses and break us up in this matter. We haven't the money. I had to pay out $1300 yesterday, and I got of this $1300 from the farmers. I want to throw myself on the mercy of the court to try to get this case heard in some reasonable time that we may have justice in this matter."

The present system of parole and probation, of light fines, low bail, inadequate sentences and mistakes made came in for unequivocal condemnation. The crowded condition of the jails, the need for additional men in nearly every department, the need for co-operation from the public and particularly from parents received special emphasis.

Present were Superior Judges Avery, Reeve, Hardy, Wood, Burnett, Kestich and Shank, Chief of Police Vollmer, Dist. Atty. Frederick R. As the man left the bank he dropped his revolver on the sidewalk, where it was later found and brought in the bank. It was a .45-caliber weapon and was unloaded.

As soon as the bandit left the window French called other tellers in adjoining cages. The robbery had been conducted so quietly that they had noted nothing amiss until he called. He was highly nervous as a result of the robbery but was assisted in checking up his cash.

Bank officials stated their loss was fully covered by insurance, and that usual efforts would be made to apprehend the bandit.

Complete Jury for Gere's Trial Expected Today

Trial of Thomas Gere, asserted bunco man and associate of Fred Mayne and Otis B. Berry, who are in San Quentin, began yesterday before Judge Reeve. He is charged with the theft of $15,000 from Thomas Donohue and of $17,120 from John Herr. It is hoped to complete the jury today.

Frank W. Stafford, who resigned recently as Deputy District Attorney to conduct the case by Dist. Atty. Keyes on account of his familiarity with it and because he had prosecuted Mayne and Berry. The defense attorney objected on technical grounds but the objections were overruled.

Gere was at liberty three years after his indictment and sought to get the case dismissed for want of prosecution but the appellate courts held against him.

Christmas puts your gallantry on trial

So Give Like a Prince— Give the Princely Duofold

Its Color, Size and 25-Year Point Have Stirred the World

HUMAN nature compels your friends to judge you Christmas by what you give. So do justice to your own generous impulses by sending the classic of pens—the new-day pen the world rates highest.

For no other we know of—not even at half the price—has ever had such sales as Parker Duofold. Yes, this year Christmas Headquarters are the Duofold counters in 25,000 stores. You can tell it by the throngs of gay shoppers now gathered there daily.

Only the Parker Duofold has this 25-year point, with a tip of polished Iridium that costs us $23.40 a pound. It's as smooth as a jewel. It suits all hands. And no style of writing can alter it—hence a pen you can lend without fear.

"Handsome than gold!" is what one hears wherever the Duofold's black-tipped lacquer-red barrel is seen. A color that makes this a hard pen to lose, and a treasure to carry in the pocket, or on a ribbon or chain.

Give the $7 Over-size Duofold or $5 Duofold Jr. to the men and boys; give the slender Lady Duofold ($5) to the women and girls. All Duofolds with rich Gold Girdle—was $1 extra—now free, due to large demand.

But look on the pen for this stamp of the genuine—"Geo. S. Parker—DUOFOLD—Lucky Curve." Look carefully. You don't want to send a lesser pen or imitation. The real Parker Duofold will prove your gallantry.

PLAY DANCE MUSIC

They put on an hour of dance music that was marked with haunting melodies and lively rhythm. A splendid orchestra, they played ten numbers with a vim and spirit that left all Radioland whistling the melodies they had heard.

The noon broadcast featured Hazel Clay, soprano, pupil of Raymond Harmon. With Mr. Harmon at the Knabe, the soprano gave several charming songs in a voice of clear, sweet tones, well adapted to radio broadcast. "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" was particularly attractive.

Fred C. McNabb of the Aggeler & Musser Seed Company talked on behalf of the beautiful garden, giving suggestions looking toward the elimination of the garden pests. No doubt it will soon be noticed that there is an antenna on the roof, the garden will be one of unusual beauty.

The children's hour saw many folk gathered in the studio to entertain the lady and ladies. Mrs. Retta Rhodes and Alec Badger gave a skit entitled, "Carrie Stud-les Phenology," which was highly amusing.

Patrick William, boy soprano, 10 years of age, sang in his usual pleasing manner. He gave a fine song composed by his father, "Where the Ocean Links the Orient with the West." Other numbers were, "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" and "Mary." He was accompanied by his father.

Adelle Loyd, 10 years of age, gave a reading, as did Robert Rhodes, who is but 9 years of age. Beas Long, pianist, entertained with a solo, and Mrs. W. Cleghorn gave a pianologue. Priscilla Moran, tiny screen star, also contributed to the entertainment of the hour.

Ruth Annette Rigs, harpist, pupil of Alfred Kastner, and who is 12 years of age, played in splendid style, and a story by Uncle John concluded the program.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

My Dear Editor: When sending for a diet which we offer you, please remember to include in the envelope for which you will receive a diet, a list of your ailments, your age, sex, height, weight, and occupation. This information is necessary to enable us to give you a diet which is adapted to your individual needs. Please do not forget to include this information in every order.

Mrs. E.—The only cure for a catarrh is an operation.

W.—Yes, alfalfa is listed high in the vitamin-bearing foods, but it is not palatable for men. Why not get your vitamins from spinach and other greens? They are all high vitamin-bearing foods. If milk does not seem to agree with you, "take it" in the form of custard, eggnog, soups, etc.

S.—Write to your county medical society. They will give you a list of local physicians who specialize in different fields.

A.—If you breathe through your mouth after your adenoids are removed, and there is no other physical cause of obstruction, it is probably through habit. If you will tie up your chin at night, or wear one of the supporters especially designed for that purpose, you will undoubtedly overcome the habit.

"Dear Doctor—My age is 57. My weight is 155, height five feet six and a half. I am able to do a day's work yet in our local rubber factory. My appetite and digestion are good. My teeth are perfect yet. In former days I suffered from rheumatism and some years ago I stopped eating meat entirely, and since then have not had it. I eat three light meals a day and nothing between. Oatmeal for breakfast, a light vegetable dinner with some cheese, and rice bread with butter and cheese for supper. I drink neither coffee nor tea, except hoarhound tea.

"Since prohibition I have not touched strong drinks, but previously was a moderate beer-drinking man. I simply tell you this to show you that even a sudden radical change in my drinking habits did not produce bad results in my system. For a man of my age my voice is strong, steady and flexible; I sing in the church choir, and my hand is firm enough to spend my spare time in painting really fine oil paintings. To tell the truth, I really do feel like taking a new lease on life.

"Now kindly inform me, Doctor, about my weight and drinking and what, in your opinion, my prospects are to extend the years of my life. Should you advise me to make any radical change in my mode of living, I would not hesitate to give it a fair trial. Not that I am too close-fisted to get a doctor's advice. No, not at all, but reading your articles I felt attracted to you, and would appreciate your kind advice.

Respectfully yours,

"F. T."

My dear F. T.: My advice to you is to carry on exactly as you are doing. You seem to have made a very cheerful success of life. It certainly is a pleasure to hear from you. I will say that your prospect is 100 per cent of living to over 100.

Your meals of oatmeal, vegetables, rice bread, butter, and cheese seem to be giving you all of the elements you need. The cheese is giving you a high-grade and complete protein, minerals and energy food, and the vegetables are giving you your vitamins and minerals. I presume you are taking some fruit, too. You are not overeating. From the standard table of weights you are underweight, but you are another example of the fact that it is better to be underweight in advanced age.

The Hoarhound tea which you drink probably has not affected your health other than supplying water. Hoarhound has a bitter principle, which was formerly supposed to act as a mild tonic. The name is derived from hoary (meaning gray) and hound, because one of the genera was gray and it was supposed to be a cure for the bite of a mad dog. If the infection has passed to the victim, is the Pasteur treatment. This brings us to the subject of rabies, but I shall have to take that up another time.

Tomorrow—Baby's Wardrobe.

TO READ PLAY

At the regular weekly meeting of the Playwrights' society, evening in the Brock-Shops Building, Sydney Sprague will give a reading of his three-act historical romance, "Wisconsin." Exceptional Conditions Have Made An Exceptional Opportunity

Notable Price Reductions at Brock's

Due to the consolidation of Nordlinger's with Brock's, we find ourselves with a greater amount of merchandise—particularly in certain departments—than is needed to meet our patrons' requirements.

And even though all the merchandise is smart and strictly in vogue, sound business judgment demands that we break the traditional policy of both Brock's and Nordlinger's and offer price reductions on portions of it for a limited period.

That is the reason why the greatest opportunity in jewelry for Christmas shoppers ever afforded in Los Angeles is now open to you—the opportunity to secure at sharply lowered prices watches, gem-set ear drops, diamond pendants, fitted luggage and a wide assortment of novelties in platinum, gold and leather.

Wesson

Did you ever cook with salad oil?

Frying with Wesson Oil is not a new way to cook. You don't have to learn how. You always melt any fat to a liquid long before it is hot enough to fry in. With Wesson Oil you start with a delicious salad oil, instead of a melted fat that—well, frankly, would you care to eat your ordinary frying fat raw?

There is no difference in the way you fry—but an amazing difference in what it tastes like.

TUNNELS URGED FOR PUPILS' AID

Vollmer Suggests Plan to Protect Children

Saving is Seen in Relief of Traffic Officers

Proposal Probably Will be Given to Council

Construction of tunnels under streets on which schoolhouses are located in order that children may cross in safety, was suggested yesterday at a meeting of Chief of Police Vollmer and police captains as a remedy to the traffic situation. The suggestion, it was indicated, probably will be taken before the City Council for definite action. The traffic problem was discussed from all angles at the meeting. Chief Vollmer declared that the increase in the number of automobiles on the streets of the city is the most complicated as well as pressing problem with which he is faced. On the one hand, he declared, the situation itself needs careful and thorough attention, and on the other it prevents him from carrying into effect his crime-prevention program.

1500 MEN ON FORCE
There are 1500 men on the force at the present time, he said. Of these 500 are assigned to traffic duty and of these 500 there are approximately 200 stationed at schoolhouses to safeguard children. The salaries of these 200 reach approximately $20,000 a month. By constructing these tunnels this money would be saved and the underground passageways would soon pay for themselves.

So many of the men are taken from their real duties by the traffic demands, Chief Vollmer said, that he is hampered in his efforts to rid the city of crime and criminal elements. Chief Vollmer sees little hope for improvement in the situation. The holidays, which are generally accompanied by a great influx of tourists, will only aggravate the situation, he believes. The co-operation of the public in observing the new ordinance providing for a full stop by motorists before crossing streets where schoolhouses are located was requested by Chief Vollmer. Signs calling on motorists to do this are being placed about all the schoolhouses as rapidly as possible, he stated, and so far the department has succeeded in erecting the signs.

They were taken into custody at Burbank, several days ago, and on a plea of guilty were each fined $1000, which was paid. The liquor was ordered destroyed.

Then a federal warrant followed, and the trio were brought to Los Angeles charged a second time with violation of the liquor laws. The money exacted by the presiding justice of the peace at Burbank evidently exhausted the bank roll, and they were unable to furnish bond yesterday in the sum of $500 each. They are in the County Jail.

Following their arrest by the federal authorities, a demand was made upon the officers at Burbank for the evidence. This was met with a refusal, there being no disposition to obey the order of United States Commissioner Long. Later on, there was a change of position and two automobiles were delivered to bring the liquor to Los Angeles yesterday. The hearing is set for the 25th inst.

It is asserted by the prohibition enforcement officers that the capture was a unit of the general delivery of liquor being made almost every day, by parties transporting it from San Francisco to this city.

The legal battle between the couple yesterday centered about the question as to whether the black and blue marks which witnesses testified to seeing on the woman's body were caused by fist blows or were put there with the aid of grease paint.

Atty. George Appell, representing Mr. Godfrey, attempted to bring out that the marks on the defendant's body had been "manufactured" for the purpose of winning sympathy. This, he declared, was possible because of her knowledge of the uses of grease paint. Mrs. Godfrey had previously testified that the bruises had been inflicted by her husband's fists. He charged in turn that she had hit him and thrown a vase at his head.

The divorce complaints in the four previous cases in which Mrs. Godfrey had figured as a principal also were introduced into the evidence by Mr. Appell, who called attention to the fact that their wedding was very similar. Mr. Godfrey was adopted by his godmother, Mary Godfrey, said to be the possessor of a large fortune, when he was 23 years of age. She is now asserted to be financially independent.

A property settlement is pending between the couple and the court stated that he would not give his decision until this was concluded.

Now—today—madame can prepare for the rainy weather soon to come. Schuman's is overstocked, and great savings are in store for the prudent shopper!

ONE BANDIT HOLDS UP BANK

Lines Up Employees of City Market Branch, Gets $1500 From Teller's Cage; Overlooks Thousands

A Mexican or Greek who had a fluent command of the more forcible kinds of English held up the City Market branch of the California Bank at 945 San Pedro street yesterday, obtaining $1500 while four bank officials were lined up against the wall, their hands high in the air.

He escaped in an automobile, in which two companions were waiting, missing in his hurry several thousand dollars in currency. The man entered the bank alone, unmasked, and carrying a revolver. In language that indicated he must have learned to speak American from a multilingual, he ordered W. C. Harp, assistant manager, L. G. Lehn, teller, Norman Crawford, bookkeeper, and W. F. Beck, a clerk, out of their cages and against the wall. Then he held them there while he ransacked the teller's cage, bundling up what money was handy and stuffing it into his pockets.

Then, with his pistol still pointed, he backed out of the institution and jumped into an automobile, which bore away swiftly. J. J. Gallagher, a merchant at about all the schools in Hollywood.

ARRESTS THREATENED
Failure to obey the ordinance will be followed by arrests, Chief Vollmer stated, adding that it was not his desire to swing "a club" but to gain the public's aid.

Chief Vollmer also requested that private citizens help pull that private citizens help pull at any intersection in outlying sections. It is impossible to have traffic officers at all crossings, he stated, and the aid given by a private citizen will help the police materially.

DRY COURT BANK ROLL DEPLETOR
Trio Fined $1000 Each Unable to Put Up Bail on New Charge

Three alleged violators of the Volstead law—Frank Carnero, alias Mike Costello, Claude Brown and Alfred Levinson, are booked for a double dose of punishment for bringing forty-one cans of liquor along the broad highway leading down from San Francisco to Los Angeles.

They were taken into custody at Burbank, several days ago, and on a plea of guilty were each fined $1000, which was paid. The liquor was ordered destroyed.

Then a federal warrant followed, and the trio were brought to Los Angeles charged a second time with violation of the liquor laws. OKLAHOMAN

ON TOUR TO HELP STATE

Board of Trade Official Blames Walton for Chaos in Klan Row

The recent spectacle in the governmental affairs of Oklahoma was wholly unnecessary and was nothing short of a ridiculous play by a very ambitious governor who sought to establish a sort of monarchy as a furtherance of his individual political plans, according to E. H. Waite, secretary of the Shawnee (Okla.) Board of Trade, who arrived in Los Angeles yesterday.

Mr. Waite is making a nation-wide tour to tell the people of the country of the conditions in Oklahoma as he sees them. "Oklahoma is a sane and prosperous State," Mr. Waite said. "The recent happenings in the politics of the State do not reflect the temperance of Oklahoma. Instead of anarchy and strife, as most people believe exist there, we have peace and prosperity."

Removal of Gov. Walton from office has restored the State to peace completely and an era of development that should have started a year ago, but was delayed because of the attitude of the impeached governor, will begin at once, Mr. Waite declared. "Oklahoma's troubles resulted from Walton alone," Mr. Waite declared. "He was a radical error who thought he could rule the entire State by himself. His expulsion is not a Klan victory, as some believe. The people of Oklahoma were solidly behind his removal, and the fact that he was removed as quickly as he was is an example of the power of the newspapers of the State, all of which united in opposition to Walton."

More than a score of cities have been visited by Mr. Waite on his tour and thousands of people have been addressed by him. After leaving Los Angeles he will tour the Pacific Northwest.

YOUTHFUL TRUCK OPERATOR SAID TO ADMIT THIRTY MILES AN HOUR

J. R. Moran, 36 years of age, of 324 South Hill street, was probably fatally injured last night when struck by an automobile driven by a youthful operator. The driver was taken to the Receiving Hospital suffering from lacerations and possible skull fracture and later was moved to the Clara Barton Hospital.

Phil Hathaway, 17 years of age, who was said to have been driving the truck, was arrested by Police Officers Dwight and Piusenberger of Hollywood division and lodged in jail on charges of reckless driving, insufficient lights and failure to have a chauffeur's license. Officers said Hathaway admitted he was driving at a rate of thirty miles an hour when the machine hit Moran. The driver will be turned over to the juvenile authorities today, it was stated.
